

Future Passive

Grammar Drill Pack

Focus: Choosing the correct passive form for future actions — five short drills to lock in Future Passive.

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____ Score _____

1 · Rules

- ◆ Future passive is formed with will/shall + be + past participle.
- ◆ Use "going to be" + past participle for planned future actions.
- ◆ When using perfect aspect, add have been before the past participle (will have been + past participle).

2 · Signal words

will be shall be going to be

by tomorrow

next year

by the time in the future

by Friday

Tip: These words often flag Future Passive — spot them, then choose the form.

3 · Gap-fill drill

Write the correct form of Future Passive in each gap.

- 1 The report _____ to the manager tomorrow.
- 2 A new school _____ in the town next year.
- 3 The tickets _____ by the time the concert starts.
- 4 The cake _____ by the chef for the party.
- 5 The results _____ by Friday.
- 6 The old library _____ during the summer.

4 · Error correction

Each sentence has one mistake in Future Passive. Rewrite it correctly.

- 1 ~~The letters will mailed tomorrow.~~
- 2 ~~The project is going to completed by June.~~
- 3 ~~The movie shall released next month.~~
- 4 ~~The assignments will have graded by the end of the week.~~
- 5 ~~The garden is going to planted this spring.~~
- 6 ~~The tickets will cancelled if the event is postponed.~~

5 · Mini-quiz

Choose the correct option (A–D).

- 1 Which sentence correctly uses the future passive?
☐ (A) The bridge will be opened next Monday. ☐ (B) The bridge will open next Monday.
☐ (C) The bridge is opening next Monday. ☐ (D) The bridge will have opened next Monday.
- 2 Select the future passive form for the verb 'to finish' in the sentence: 'The work ____ by the team tomorrow.'
☐ (A) will be finished ☐ (B) will finished ☐ (C) is finished ☐ (D) will be finishing
- 3 Which of these sentences is NOT a correct future passive?
☐ (A) The cake shall be baked by noon. ☐ (B) The cake shall baked by noon.
☐ (C) The cake will be baked by noon. ☐ (D) The cake is going to be baked by noon.
- 4 Choose the correct future passive to complete: 'The results ____ by Friday.'
☐ (A) will have been released ☐ (B) will be released ☐ (C) will have released ☐ (D) will be releasing
- 5 Identify the sentence that uses a future passive with 'going to be'.
☐ (A) The road is going to be repaired next year. ☐ (B) The road will be repaired next year.
☐ (C) The road is going to repair next year. ☐ (D) The road will repaired next year.
- 6 Which sentence correctly combines a future time expression with a passive verb?
☐ (A) The invitation will be sent tomorrow. ☐ (B) The invitation will sent tomorrow.
☐ (C) The invitation is sent tomorrow. ☐ (D) The invitation will be sending tomorrow.